

Mag. Florian A. Hoertlehner

“Independent Assetmanager ”

PRIVATE

born in Bad Godesberg near Bonn in Western Germany (1976) as son of Diplomat Dr. Wolfgang Hörtlehner and his wife Irene Hörtlehner.

grown up internationally in Bonn, Germany (1976), Mosqua, Russia (1979), Vienna, Austria (1981) and Oslo, Norway (1986) and Mödling, Austria(1990)

EDUCATION

1999 graduated from Vienna University of Economics, Austria, Masters’s degree in Business Administration (Austrian name: “Magister”) (in just 3½ years finished twice as fast as the average student, effectively studying faster than scheduled by the university), specializing in Monetary History and Monetary Politics, thesis supervisor was Professor Ewald Nowotny (Gouverneur of Austrian National Bank and member of the ECB board of gouverneurs)

1997 Investment Advisor certified by the Austrian Association of Investment Advisors.

1995 graduated from HTL Mödling ,Austria, with a Degree in information science and software engineering Overall Degree 1,00, the best degree possible, getting awarded the Ingenieur diploma.

BUSINESS

2012-current member of the supervisory board of Gamigo AG, Hamburg, Germany www.gamigo.de the leading distributor of multiplayer games in Germany with 20 million customers) and 350 employees

2011 Chairman of the board of directors GetGoods.de AG (www.getgoods.de) a German public listed retailer of mobile phones with 400 million Euro annual; supervising major acquisitions and restructurings.

2007-current Investor. Semi-Passive Investor role in activist deals in squeeze-outs and takeovers and liquidations. Investments into real estate developments, manufacturing companies and foreign exchange strategies.

2003-2006 Warwick Asset Management, Hong Kong, Director, specializing in US closed end fund discount arbitrage, ETF arbitrage, UK Investment Trust discount arbitrage, US going private equity special situation trading, conventional M&A deal arbitrage for small cap stocks, real estate stock secondary offering trading, passive investor to a few unfriendly takeovers. Achievements: Significant outperformance compared to larger absolute value strategies, without a quarterly loss.

2000 – 2002 ASTRA Securities Bermuda, a specialised investment advisor to the Warwick Fund, Millennium 3 Subfund, a Cayman Island Hedge fund, running a high-volume, high-frequency equity-equity arbitrage strategy. Achievements: 850% Annualized Performance, with no single day of losses, certified by the fund’s Administrator.

1999 GAUSS GmbH, Austria, a startup internet based document management software company, Strategic & Financial Advisor, responsible to refine strategic business planning and for initial private equity capital raising.

1997-1999 WU Investment Forum, Austria, founding member and executive director, of a non-profit enterprise with the mission to educate about capital markets, provide research on the most profitable investment strategies and to provide a networking platform for future capital market professionals. Responsible for liaising with investment banks and investment strategy research.

1994-1997 WFM Ltd, a start-up investment banking operation, responsible for design and implementation of an IT system to handle over 5.000 retail clients and a distribution network of over 350 salespeople and Research Analyst focusing on junior mining PGM producer Aquarius Platinum, whose shares of which have increased by a factor of 1.000 during research coverage.